

COMING EVENTS

Country NSW Home Churches
Easter Camp
21st to 24th March

New Life Campground Gilgandra

Set on the banks of the Castlereagh river in a bush setting, this is a great opportunity for fellowship, to make new friends, renew old friendships and catch up on the latest house church news and doings.

The camp will be a “come- and- enjoy- your-self-” one. Each family will take care of their own food and accommodation needs. Powered and tent sites plus dormitory accommodation available. Hot showers and toilets are also available. There are no kitchen facilities.

Cost: Powered sites suitable for caravan $10 per night
Tent sites no power $4 per person + $2 per extra person per night
Dormitory $10 per person per night, bring own bedding.
If we have to use the meeting hall [in case of rain etc] it will cost each person an extra $5.

Directions: From Gilgandra take the Coonabarabran road over the bridge and turn right [1km] onto the Mendooran road. The camp site is 7kms along the Mendooran road just before Deep Creek.

All registrations to Des Stewart indicating type of site or accommodation required.
Phone: (02) 6746 1428; Mobile: 0429 461 428; Email: des@hotkey.net.au

The camp is open to all, the more the merrier. Please let all your house church folk know of this exciting opportunity to meet and worship together.