

We joined believers from all the nations celebrating around His Table the death and resurrection of the Lord Jesus Commanded His Disciples...

"...when he had given thanks, he broke [the bread] and said, "This is my body, which is [broken] for you; do this in remembrance of me." In the same way, after supper he took the cup, saying, "This cup is the new covenant in my blood; do this, whenever you drink it, in remembrance of me" 1 Corinthians 11:24-26.

The Early Church

"...They broke bread in their homes and ate together with glad and sincere hearts, praising God and enjoying the favour of all the people. And the Lord added to their number daily those who were being saved" Acts 2:46-47.

All Believers Do the Same

The Lord's Table, or the Breaking of Bread, or the "Communion" as it is called by many, should always be a central part of our devotion and worship to the Lord, keeping the central focus on the New Covenant to which we are all joined by the shedding of Jesus' blood for our sins.

We Celebrated in Our Home

Together with believers who would be gathering all over the world we celebrated in our home in Newcastle with a few good friends, and later at a special Passover New Covenant feast in a larger gathering,

Wonderful Revelation of the Lord

Our eyes are opened to the wonder of who the Lord is and what He has done as we break bread together. Two of His disciples did not recognize Jesus after the resurrection but the breaking of bread revealed who He was.

"When he was at the table with them, he took bread, gave thanks, broke it and began to give it to them. Then their eyes were opened and they recognized him"..." Luke 24:30-31.
